

Hope For The Future

Criminal Case Review Commission Bill

This Bill would set up an independent body to investigate whether a wrongful conviction or sentencing has occurred.

The proposed Criminal Cases Review Commission (CCRC) would be able to review convictions and sentences and decide whether to refer them to the appeal court.

The Justice Committee reports to Parliament on this Bill on 17th October 2019

For More Information
Justiceforallincorp@gmail.com

Exposing The Injustice

Bruce MacFarlane QC is a Canadian lawyer, Crown Prosecutor, legal scholar, Director of Legal Services and author. He has been Manitoba's Deputy Minister of Justice & Deputy Attorney General.

Bruce teaches "Criminal Law and Procedure" & "Miscarriages of Justice". In 2003 he presented a major paper on Wrongful Convictions at the Heads of Prosecution Agencies in the Commonwealth.

Dr Bob Moles runs 'Networked Knowledge' - a web page that publishes legal materials & investigates alleged cases of serious Miscarriage of Justice.

Bibi Sangha is a Professor at Flinders University Adelaide.

Bob, Bibi and Kent Roach co-authored the highly acclaimed book 'Forensic Investigations and Miscarriages of Justice'.

Hosted by Justice For All Inc.

Wrongful Conviction Day

A First For Aotearoa N.Z.

Sunday October 13th 2019
TSB Room Turanga Library
Christchurch
1.30pm – 5.00pm

A Free Event - All Welcome

'Convicting the Innocent'

There is Injustice
Where there should be Justice

Naivety and Rulings
Where there should be Insight

When Mistakes Happen
The Justice System Fails Us

We Imprison the Innocent !